

What's New Questionnaire June 2018

All perfect scores will be entered into a drawing for a $50 gift card. Three names will be drawn for each questionnaire. Feel free to photocopy a blank sheet for each team member that would like to participate.

Once complete, please fax back to (920) 569-2309. Quizzes must be returned by:

NOON on Wednesday, June 20th.

June Inspiration - "Start today."

<3 the Cherry Optical, Inc Team

Your name: _____

Your Clinic's name: _____

Phone #: _____

Email: _____

1) A or B? When ordering a computer lens, you should provide the lab with ____.

- A.) a compensated RX.
- B.) the patient's everyday wear RX and allow the lens to do the calculation.

2) True or False? The tool that matches the backside curve of the lens and holds the pads that polish and fine the lenses during surfacing is called a lap.

3) Outward inclination of the bottom of the framed lenses is called _____ tilt.

- A.) Pantoscopic
- B.) Periscopic
- C.) Retrosopic
- D.) Retractive

4) True or False? The debris leftover from lens processing in surfacing and finishing is called swarf.

5) Phorias and tropias are further defined by their direction of movement: ____ as meaning outward (temporally), ____ as meaning inward (nasaly), ____ as meaning downward, and ____ as meaning upward. (Place them in the correct order.)

- A.) exo, eso, hyper, hypo
- B.) eso, exo, hypo, hyper
- C.) hypo, hyper, exo, eso
- D.) exo, eso, hypo, hyper

6) The term for the refractive condition where light comes to a focus in front of the retina is:

- A.) Hyperopia
- B.) Myopia
- C.) Emmetropia
- D.) Astigmatism