Meet The Staff

One of our new cafeteria In the cafeteria at Lutheran South Unity School, there's another new kitchen helper. His name is Lee Jordan. His wife, Beverly Jordan, is the nurse at LSUS.

He graduated from Central High School, Fort Wayne. For forty-two years he worked in the Natural Gas Industry. The various positions he held were operations manager, supervisor, and quality assurance inspector. He also owned BJ's Fish and Chips Restaurant.

He and his wife have five sons and one daughter. They also are grandparents to ten grandchildren. His hobbies are cooking, walking, and sports. In his spare time, he has visited twenty-six states. At St. John Missionary Baptist Church he is a minister and Sunday School teacher.

Mr. Jordan words of wisdom are: In everything you do, do it as though God Himself is watching you. Actually, He truly is.

Found in Scriptures:

Let them thank the Lord for his steadfast love, for his wondrous works to the children of man! For he satisfies the longing soul, and the hungry soul he fills with good things. —Psalms 107:8-9
