Johnny Appleseed Festival this weekend!

The Johnny Appleseed Festival is back! Unfortunately, we will not be doing our Caramel Sauce or Caramel Popcorn booths again this year. However, you can still support Concordia High School's booths. The band will be serving corn on the cob and apple/strawberry shortcake. The JROTC students will be serving up fried mushrooms, fried pickles, root beer floats, apple crisp ala mode, and beignets! Come and enjoy the sites, smells and tastes of the festival.

5th-8th Graders are invited to Future Cadet Night

At Concordia Lutheran High School, Christ-centered education is what we do. All of the experiences of high school—academics, extracurriculars, football games, dances—are offered on a foundation of solid Christian teaching. Want to learn more about what that looks like? Join them on Friday, September 22 at 7 PM for Future Cadet Night at their Homecoming game against South Side. This is a great opportunity for you to experience the incredible community at Concordia for yourself. The best part? 5th - 8th graders can get FREE tickets and are automatically entered for giveaways throughout the night (Parents may buy their tickets for the game at TicketSpicket.)

Here's what you can expect at the event:

- Get to know current and future Cadet families
- Enjoy free admission to our Homecoming football game (and hopefully a win) against South Side
- Get a taste of Cadet school spirit
- Students also get FREE popcorn and a chance to win CLHS swag!

*Come early for our Homecoming tailgate too - we'll have food trucks and concessions on hand!
