"Our God Our Help for All Ages" Chorfest

Four of our middle school students, Khloe, Jesse,

Quantre, and Josef participated in Chorfest Thursday night at CLHS. Chorfest is a choir festival with several area Lutheran middle school students participating. The theme was "Our God Our Help in All Ages." They had around 120 participants! Mrs. Reynolds said they did a great job!

Remembering our Veterans!

This week we focused on remembering our veterans. Pastor Punke led chapel service and talked about the different branches of the military, what it means to be a veteran, and showed a video about Veteran's Day. The last few months we have been collecting offerings for the Honor Flight, which serves our veterans. Students have decorated cards to send to those taking this flight this year. Thank you to any LSUS family members who have, are, or will serve this country!

Meet The Staff

One of our new cafeteria workers here at Lutheran South Unity School is Daysha Davis. She is the mom of first grader Carreonna. She also has an infant son, at home.

Ms. Davis graduated from South Side High School. She then went to Indiana Tech for her bachelor's degree in child development. She attends Friendship Baptist Church.

While Ms. Davis attended high school, she worked at McDonald's. After high school she worked at Ciocca Cleaning and Restoration, cleaning buildings. Then she worked at the Sage Bluff Health and Rehab Center.

Ms. Davis, most of all, loves being a mom. Besides this she likes to do hair, cook, and spend quality time with her family. In her spare time she likes to watch movies, especially Lifetime movies.

Her words of wisdom: KEEP SMILING – There's always a bright day ahead of you.
