A Celebration of Effort and Achievement

LSUS recently celebrated First Quarter Medallion Day, recognizing students for their hard work and dedication during the first nine weeks of school. Awards were presented for Perfect Attendance, Honor Roll, and Rise Up Awards, highlighting students who go above and beyond in character and effort. In addition, students were honored with pins for their participation in sports and music, celebrating their involvement and achievements both in and out of the classroom. It was a joyful day of recognition, encouragement, and school spirit!

Phoenix Fire-Up Rally!

filling the gym with excitement as we gear up for a great season ahead.

We kicked off the JV and Varsity boys' basketball season with our first pep rally of the year last Friday! The cheerleaders brought the energy as they introduced each player and hyped up the crowd with their cheers. Students and staff ended the event with a fun and friendly game of Knockout,
