Fall Fun Takes Over LSUS!

LSUS hosted a lively Harvest Fest on November 15th, filling the afternoon with fall-themed fun for the whole family. Students and parents enjoyed activities like pumpkin bowling, sucker gourd pulls, face painting, the duck pond, and "Pin the Nose on the Jack-o'-Lantern," along with raffles, food trucks, and even a video-gaming truck. Families had a wonderful time moving from station to station, laughing, playing, and celebrating our school community.

The talent show brought extra excitement as students showcased a variety of performances, including dancing, singing, and even stand-up comedy. Each act brought smiles and cheers from the crowd, and our performers did an outstanding job shining on stage. Congratulations to our 1st and 6th grade classes for winning the schoolwide photo contest! We also extend a heartfelt thank-you to our sponsors, our amazing volunteers, and the Pearson's for helping make this year's Harvest Fest such a joyful and memorable event.
