

Keep your back of the house safe—and your front of the house ahead of the competition.

In the restaurant industry, the food isn't the only thing that makes an impression. From the moment guests are seated to the minute they walk out the door, every detail counts.

Providing a safe, comfortable environment for your guests and staff is critical—and hand washing and bathroom hygiene is a huge part of that task. After proper hand washing, drying hands with paper towels helps to reduce the spread of germs.* LoCor® no-touch paper towel dispensing systems are a smart, sustainable way to keep your handwashing stations, food prep, public areas and staff restrooms safer and more hygienic.

Our towels and dispensers also help you reduce waste, make a great impression and keep things cooking behind the scenes. Because the thing that makes a dining experience memorable isn't always on the plate.

- Promote proper hand hygiene
- Support staff health
- Contribute to food safety
- Help reduce the spread of germs
- Create a comfortable guest experience
- Improve hygiene with no-touch dispensing
- Make maintenance easier, with reliable solutions
- Reduce change-outs with our high-capacity systems
- Complement your décor with a range of sizes and styles
